

You are cordially invited to

Youth Legislative Breakfast
January 15, 2003

8-11:30 a.m.

Indiana Government Center South Auditorium

www.in.gov/cji

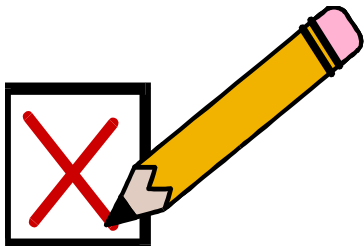

Learn about the legislative process and how Hoosier youth can participate in developing safer communities around Indiana. Objectives of the event are to educate young people on the legislature and to increase awareness of youth as advocates and active citizens. Youth will be informed about the many pressing issues including: traffic safety, underage drinking, tobacco and other drugs as well as other public safety issues. Also meet face to face with your Indiana legislators at the Statehouse. Discuss with them the issues that affect you and your peers.

To schedule a tour of the Statehouse, call 317/233-5293, or send a request to captours@doa.state.in.us or to find the name of your legislator, make an appointment to speak with, or to e-mail your legislator, please visit:
